1. Mission. The 710th Intelligence Flight (710 IF) provides trained personnel who monitor Air Force communications-computer systems to determine if any information is being revealed that may be of intelligence value to an enemy. The flight develops and forwards communications security assessments to designated customers. The flight assists in integrating and conducting information operations that shape the international security environment and, when necessary, the battlespace.

2. Command. The Commander (710 IF/CC) is subordinate to the 67th Intelligence Group, Commander (67 IG/CC).

3. Responsibilities: The 710 IF/CC:

- 3.1. Exercises command and control of the 710 IF personnel and resources dispersed among the flight and its specified area of responsibility.
- 3.2. Maintains Communications-Computer security assessment capabilities in a deployable status.
- 3.3. Monitors Communication-Computer Systems to determine intelligence value to an enemy.
- 3.4. Maintains mobility personnel and equipment in a state of readiness for deployments.
- 3.5. Ensures timely processing of awards, decorations, performance reports, and other personnel actions.

3.6. Executes 67 IG, 67th Intelligence Wing, and AIA policies, plans, and directives.
